

GIRLS LEAP TO DEATH AS FIRE RAGES

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 25.—Eleven girls and one man employed in the factory of the Union Paper Box company on the North Side are known to be dead, eight girls are badly injured and a number of others are missing as the result of a fire which this afternoon started in the feed store of James Brown and company and spread to the factory.

Firemen searching the ruins of the three story building recovered the bodies and reinforced by the entire city department continued their search in the dense smoke. Joseph L. Bash, employed as salesman by a stove company on the second floor of the building, saw flames shooting up the elevator shaft.

Running to a window to give the alarm he noticed a number of girls from the box factory leaning out of an upper window. Calling on them to jump, he caught them one after another, lowering them to the ground until eight were safe. A. J. Seagle, another stove salesman, did the same thing at another window and aided a number to safety, while Henry Schrader, of Cleveland, drove a wagon to the rear of the building and caught others as they jumped. Other girls sprang into the street and seven of them were taken to a hospital badly hurt. Henry T. Schafer, manager of the box factory, said that

Vessels And War Munition Factories Were To Be Blown Up, New York Police Allege

(BULLETIN)
New York, Oct. 25.—Robert Fay, a lieutenant of the Sixteenth Saxonian infantry, admitted today that he came here last April, through an arrangement with the German secret service for the purpose of blowing up or delaying steamers sailing from this country with arms and ammunition for the allies.

Fay declared, however, that while he had been here he had acted independently of the German embassy or other German agents here. He added that he had told Captain von Papen, military attaché and Captain K. Boyed, naval attaché of the German embassy, of his plans, but said that both men told him not to interfere with steamers sailing from American ports or American ammunition plants.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 25.—According to statements made by machinist union officials this forenoon, the National Acme Mfg. Co., this morning locked out 1,000 employees. This followed an attempt by the company to have its employees sign an agreement to work ten hours per day for ten hours pay, union leaders claim. The men declined to sign the agreement, they say.

RAIN IS OVER--BUT OH, THOSE HARD WINTERS

Paris, Oct. 25.—The world's rain cycle beginning in 1902, which the French meteorological authority, Abbe Moreaux, director of the Bourges observatory, predicted as the result of his study of the sun's face, is now, the Abbe says, ended. He forecasts a series, though not perhaps quite unbroken, of twenty-six hard winters beginning the present year. According to the Abbe, it is impossible to say where in Europe the winter cold will be excessive, but probabilities are France will have to face many rigorous winter seasons during this period.

Claim Railroads Are Underpaid

New York, Oct. 25.—An estimate that the railroads are underpaid to the extent of $11,200,000 for carrying the United States mail was contained in a report made public today by the special committee of the Merchants' Association, which conducted an investigation of that subject. The committee figured that the railroad should receive in addition to payments now made $14,300,000 for the use of their equipment mail cars, $2,200,000 a year for side service, which consists of transferring mail to other railroads, and between certain stations and post-offices, and about $500,000 a year on weight allowances because of the parcel post system put into effect since the last official tests of weights carried by the railroads.

Paris, Oct. 25.—"According to information from an authorized source the Bulgarians have taken Uskup," is the concluding sentence of an official statement issued by the Serbian war office and forwarded by the Havas News Agency.

BRYAN BRANDS IT "IMMUNITY AMENDMENT" IN HIS ADDRESS AT STEUBENVILLE, OHIO, TODAY

CARRANZA POSES FOR OIL PAINTING

General Carranza.

Steubenville, Ohio, Oct. 25.—"This so-called constitutional amendment should be called the 'Immunity Amendment,' its purpose insofar as it relates to the special privilege interests to secure immunity for them by guarantee that they will not be disturbed no matter what they do."

This was the declaration of William Jennings Bryan, former secretary of state, and three times presidential candidate, who addressed a great throng of voters here today, opening the whirlwind campaign in behalf of state-wide prohibition.

Mr. Bryan's reference was to the amendment introduced by the so-called liberal interests, which, if adopted on November 2, would prevent a vote officer than once in six years on constitutional amendments twice defeated since 1912.

The adoption of the amendment, Mr. Bryan said, would practically nullify the initiative and referendum feature of Ohio's constitution. It was an attack upon the principles of popular government, he said. He made an especial plea to the laboring class to vote against it.

Columbus, Oct. 25.—William J. Bryan, former secretary of state, speaking at Steubenville, this morning, began a six day campaign for the adoption of a proposed state wide prohibition amendment to the Ohio constitution which will be voted in the November election. I reckon if a stranger dropped in here right now and went away before it started to rain he'd be convinced for the rest of his life that this is the finest climate on earth. And it is. The only reason we ain't got a big rep in the swell climate line is because we've never learned to say "very unusual" when hum weather strikes us. Get that habit, and we'll have the rest of 'em backed up the boards. Here's for tomorrow: Ohio—Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday. Colder Tuesday. West Virginia—Fair and warmer tonight. Tuesday fair, colder in west portion. Kentucky—Fair, colder tonight and Tuesday.

CHILDREN SEE MOTHERS BAYONETTED

London, Oct. 25.—A long account by an eye-witness of Armenian atrocities is telegraphed by the Reuter correspondent with the Dardanelles fleet. The statement is from an official source, the correspondent explaining that it was given to the British staff by an Armenian serving in the Turkish army who was taken prisoner.

This account begins at Erzerum, the principal city of Turkish Armenia, last March. It covers travels about various parts of Armenia and gives details of various atrocities along familiar lines—how the bishop of Sivas was shod with shoes of red hot iron by a village blacksmith at the order of Turks, how men of Tokat were tied together in groups of four and taken out one hundred at a time to the marshy districts for massacre and how the declaration of martial law at Zila included the confiscation of all Armenian property.

The account describes how women were tied to the tails of ox carts and exposed to hunger and rough weather until they accepted conversion to Islam or death, how mothers were bayoneted before the eyes of their children, how Armenian girls were distributed as chattels among civil and military officials.

The prisoner says that as a soldier, he himself was compelled to assist in many massacres, being on one occasion a member of a party of soldiers which superintended the death of eight hundred Armenians. His account closes as follows:

"There is reason to believe that German advisers of the Turks have urged upon them the undesirability of allowing alien and presumably unfriendly populations to inhabit ports which lie close to Russian attack."

Earle Williams as "John Storm" in One of the Big Scenes of "The Christian", at the Lyric Tomorrow and Wednesday.

Mr. Earle Williams, of the Vitagraph Players, certainly can be considered the Beau Brummel of the screen, for it is considered beyond question that he is the best dressed and handsomest man now appearing before the camera.

As John Storm, in "The Christian," which will be played at the Lyric theatre tomorrow and Wednesday his Adonis-like attributes were rudely shaken. In one scene in which he is supposed to have been the cause of inciting panic and riots in the slums of London, a mob of 3,000 howling, shrieking, panic-stricken men, women and children were thrown against him. When Mr. Williams was a young enthusiast, but never in the roughest scrimmage of all did he receive such treatment as was accorded to him by those 3,000 extra people employed in making the film. With them he fought like one possessed as can be seen by his performance in "The Christian." When it was all over he was bruised from head to foot. A doctor was necessary to ease his sore joints, and for more than a week he was unable to appear at the studio.

This is one of the features of motion pictures that is never encountered in the theatre, for the very simple reason that no actor in the theatre can afford to take such chances. He has to appear the next night and go through the performance again. But not so with the moving picture actor. He can throw his whole heart, and soul and body, too, into the part, and to their credit it must be said that many of them act exactly like Mr. Williams. It matters not to them if they are laid up in the hospital for a week or two after playing a strenuous scene. It is all part of their every day work. The scene must be done true to life, and if a fight is demanded it must be a real fight, and no make-believe tea party affair, such as is generally seen on the stage.

Mr. Williams, as a matter of course, played John Storm in "The Christian," took his terrific beating, administered many hard knocks in return, spent his vacation under the doctor's care, with a huge bottle of liniment as his principal companion, recovered, returned to another picture, and is still full of fight in order to provide amusement for his legions of admirers.

Because he is good-looking and wears beautiful clothes has nothing to do with the fact that Earle Williams is 100 per cent pure American man.

Miss Edith Storey plays opposite Mr. Williams as "Glory Quayle," and her work is superb.

Never before has the Vitagraph company, or any other company, used so many picture stars in one production. As a novel and later as a play "The Christian" became such a tremendous vogue that recital of its superb story is superfluous.

The matinees will start at 1:30 and 3:30 and the evening shows at 6:45 and 8:30. In the afternoon the admission will be 15c and in the evening 20c, children 10c. There will be no seats reserved, so come early.

regular comedy carnival. There is no need to comment on the Chaplin feature. The one tonight is the very latest by the widely known comedian and Manager Lew guarantees a thousand laughs. HANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to bring back color, gloss, thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, restore every bit of color, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 60 cents a bottle, at drug stores, known as Wreth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This avoiding a lot of mess.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not what we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By attending your hair with Wreth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it goes on so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

There can be no "undigested" coal. Home Rule Jottings

No. 8

Hear F. E. J. Lloyd of Illinois, at old Kendall Hall Wednesday. He made a deep impression here last fall.

They say that Dan Morgan Smith had a simply dreadful attack of indigestion Saturday night after he tried to swallow the speech he made here a few years ago.

And silence still reigns regarding our inquiry to the Drys regarding their wild statements about Home Rule last fall.

Idaho legislature passed a statutory prohibition law to go into effect January 1, 1916.

This same dry, moral and so good legislature defeated the Shattuck Child Labor Bill providing 12 year limit for common labor, 9 hour day for boys under 16, girls under 18, 10 year limit for newsboys, 21 year limit for night messengers, 18 and 16 year limit for dangerous occupations.

Will the workingmen wake up and realize who is really backing prohibition, and that the same forces are those who are opposed to labor, especially organized labor?

News from dry Alabama, where Prohibition is now in effect.

Birmingham has cut fire department from 180 to 132 men, police department 170 to 138, library appropriation cut one-third, cleaning and sprinkling of streets curtailed, no appropriations for charity or social work, and the nine months school system retained only by charging a fee to families having children in schools.

Prohibition is great—for the paid agitator.

If prohibition really prohibits, why is it necessary for Georgia, dry for six years now to call a special session of the Legislature for the passing of additional dry laws?

Oscar Underwood, Democratic Floor Leader in the House of Representatives and next United States Senator from Alabama said in the debate over the Hobson Bill: "I regard the Prohibition Question as an attack upon the fundamental principles of our Government." The progress that the world has made in morality comes from the heart, following the teachings of God, and not from the force of men.

Luke McLuke says:
The sort of people who are knocking John Barleycorn are one good reason why the fellow has so many defenders.

JOE L. SWITALSKI, Sec'y.

ANSWER TO CLAIMS MADE FOR MR. FRICK BY THE DEMOCRATIC CITY CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE!

AS TO THE PAVING OF GALLIA PIKE

This improvement was provided for the preceding administration and had the plans of the preceding administration been carried out in-to the cost of paving said thoroughfares would have been approximately $60,000.00 instead of $75,000.00 as claimed by the Frick administration. The change made by the Frick administration necessitated the building of a large retaining wall approximately eight hundred feet long at a cost of about $15,000.00, said wall causing numerous damage suits to be filed which will make a further cost of at least $10,000.00 to the city and in addition to large sums to be paid out for damage suits the Buch-Snyder Addition does not front on the paved thoroughfare owing to a blunder made by the present city engineer in leaving a strip of land between the Buch-Snyder Addition and the South side of Gallia street proper, whereby Buch and Snyder are relieved of paying at least $4,000.00 of a street assessment. This makes the cost of the Gallia Street improvement in round numbers $100,000.00 as against $60,000.00 the price it could have been paved for and would have been paved for under a Republican administration. It might be of interest to voters of the city to know that Samuel G. Harper is paving three and one-half miles of streets, in New Boston, the total cost of which is $93,000.00 while the Gallia Pike proposition referred to by the Frick committee is about one mile in length and the total cost of which will approximate $100,000.00.

AS TO STREET PAVING AND BUILDING OF THE SMALL SANITARY SEWERS

The General Code provides that the council of the city is the legislative body and the majority being Republican in council at the present time, Mr. Frick seeks to take credit to himself for what the Republican majority in council is doing independent of Mr. Frick's recommendation, feeling that they are only doing their duty to the electorate of the city of Portsmouth who placed this power to legislate in his hands. In doing this the Republican majority in council is only carrying out the work planned by the former Republican administration.

AS TO THE FLOOD WALL EXTENSION

This is a measure launched also by the preceding administration. As to keeping the streets clean and keeping up garbage service without complaints the people who ought to complain and have a right to complain have long since learned that it is no use to enter any complaints to Mr. Frick knowing well what the answer would be. It is a well known fact that many of the streets are greatly neglected by the street cleaning department and that many persons have thought of advertising for the garbage man.

AS TO THE HOSPITAL

The Lake-Lowe incident is a full and complete answer as to efficiency in this department of the city government. Had the plans of the former administration in respect to the hospital been carried out a nurses' home would have been established in connection therewith and the city would not be at the expense of Twenty-five Dollars a month for rent of a nurses' home.

AS TO THE CEMETERY

There has been some addition made thereto, but the city has been deprived of at least $15,000.00 which they might have realized from the sale of lots had not the recent addition to the cemetery been cut up into a checkerboard by the present engineer, Mr. Wilhelm. And further, many people complain that the streets and avenues of the old part of the cemetery have been sold for lots in order to make up for the loss occasioned by botching the new addition as aforesaid.

AS TO THE VETOING OF EXORBITANT BILLS

for extras on the water works and refusing to pay any money until contractors complete their work according to specifications, we call Mr. Frick's attention to the acceptance of the work of The Continental Jewell Company for laying the water mains and building the filtration plant, the said company being paid in full and for numerous extras and this was done upon the recommendation of George Shute, hydraulic engineer under Mr. Frick and former employee of The Continental Jewell Company. After this contractor was paid in full and released, approximately $5,000.00 was paid for extra work in relaying pipe that should have been laid according to contract by The Continental Jewell Company, and this was done notwithstanding the fact that the contract of The Continental Jewell Company provided that ten per cent of the amount due them on contract was to be held by the city until the work was satisfactorily completed. We ask the voters of the city of Portsmouth whether or not Mr. Frick sat on the lid in this case. This is one of the extras that was not vetoed by Mr. Frick and seems to have escaped his notice altogether.

AS TO SUPERVISING OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE LAWSON RUN VIADUCT

Mr. Frick is welcome to all the credit he can get from the voters in that end of the city for supervising that part of the work. As to the flood pump and flood defenses that were turned over to Mr. Frick in the best possible condition by the preceding administration plans for improving the pumping stations had all been gone over by the Tynes administration. In this connection we ask Mr. Frick about the valve at Union Street in working properly in a recent flood whereby the region round about Union street was submerged causing great distress to the people in that neighborhood. As to the water service at New Boston, at the city's terms this also was provided for by the Tynes administration, whereby the citizens of New Boston were to have pure water at the same price given to the people of our own city and in this price was figured the interest on the old water works bonds as well as the interest on the bonds for the construction of the new water works.

AS TO ENCOURAGING THE STREET RAILWAY COMPANY

To imbed its tracks on best possible concrete the preceding administration in its franchise to the Portsmouth Street Railway & Light Company provided for this very thing for which Mr. Frick seeks credit. However, this has been the policy of the Street Railway and Light Company for four or five years, even prior to the granting of the franchise by the Tynes administration. Like the paving by the Portsmouth Street Railway & Light Company along its tracks, it was also provided for in said franchise.

AS TO THE ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT

The blunder made by said department as to the Gallia Pike improvement alone will cost the city $10,000.00 as against any saving by hired help in this department. As to installing the various heads of departments the claim by Mr. Frick that the hospital and police departments have been the best ever, discounts his opinion so far as the people are concerned as to his selection for the various heads of the other departments. It is a deplorable condition when police officers fall out and fight upon the streets, joy ride and take no means to prevent the numerous questionable characters from parading our streets on all occasions. As to justice to all classes in police court, any claim for credit along this line by Mr. Frick is only with his record in claiming credit for the various other things for which no credit is due, as every person who had anything to do with Mr. Frick's police court well and truly knows.

Want "Safety" From Reservoir Assured

The question of providing safety for residents living near the reservoir of the new water works plant near New Boston will be put up to city council at its next meeting, according to a statement made Monday by Mayor Davis, of New Boston.

No Owner Can Be Found For Auto

Unless an owner can be found for an abandoned automobile near Friendship, it will be sold by the township trustees and the money converted into the township treasury.

Authority to do this was given Constable Floyd Lavender of Friendship in a written opinion mailed to him Monday morning by Prosecuting Attorney Micklethwait. He advises the township officials to use every effort to locate the owner of the car before advertising it for sale.

The car was discovered along the pike near Friendship several weeks ago, and the officials have been at a loss to know what disposition to make of it.

BONZO JR. HAS A NECKTIE

T. E. Adams, jitney bus driver, of Eighth street, has a French poodle which he named Bonzo Jr., and informed Policeman Joe Bourgo of his name. Major Bonzo told Adams to bring the dog down street and he would buy a ribbon for his neck. Adams did, and Bonzo bought a bright red ribbon, which he tied around the canine's neck.

Riders Hurt

Harold Adams and Walter Sparks were thrown from a motorcycle while riding out the Scioto Trail Sunday afternoon. They dodged one buggy, but ran into another one coming in the same direction and were thrown heavily to the paved roadway. Adams suffered a bad cut over his left eye.

SOCIETY

A merry automobile party from this city enjoyed a sumptuous dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes Winters, of near Friendship. In the party were Guy Bloch, Miss Gladys Blair, Mrs. Dora Robinson, Miss Alberta Robinson and Miss Lena McGuire. After dinner the party enjoyed a long automobile trip over the western part of the county, followed by a picnic supper in the woods.

Calvin Atkins and Lefe Flannigan were named given by two young Kentuckians who were arrested for alleged disorderly conduct on the street fair grounds, Saturday night. The mayor fined them $10 each.

Mr. Coe Is On The Job

M. A. Coe, secretary of the Board of Trade and Business Men's Association, was back at his desk Monday morning after a week's vacation.

THEATRICAL

"The Man From Home" At The Sun

"The Man From Home" by Booth Tarkington and presented with stupendous success by the well known character comedian, William T. Hodge, will be the offering at the Sun theatre for the first half of this week, starting tonight at 8 o'clock, by the Ted Dalley Stock company, who in one week have established themselves as prime favorites.

Special scenery has been painted and special effects have been prepared and when the curtain rises the audience will be surprised at the beauty of the scenic artist's brush.

Mr. Dalley will play the role of Daniel Vorheis Pike and each member of the company will be seen to an advantage.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Oct. 25.—Despite further weakness in foreign exchange, today's market recorded a higher average level, mainly in specialties.

Those industrials which came within the scope of war shares furnished further diversion on the resumption of trading today. Maxwell Motor issues were again to the fore, the common advancing five and a quarter to the new high of 80. Baldwin Locomotive rose four to 146 and General Electric as much as 180 1/2; while National Enameling added 2 1/2 to last week's sudden rise at 36 1/2.

American Car, American Locomotive, Crucible Steel and American Linsed were higher by 1 to almost 2 points. Reaction of two to four points set in after the first upward movement. Bethlehem Steel declined 10 to 575. Rails were again a negligible factor.

Baldwin Crucible and Continental Can falling 3 to 5 points while U. S. Steel which opened at a slight gain fell over a point to 85 1/2. As these shares receded receipts became stronger. Eries being active at 1 to 2 points advance, with as much for the Anthracites and New Haven and Grangers made little upward progress, however, and the movement as a whole suggested further selling of standard stocks as specialties recovered. Increased weakness of foreign exchange for greater confusion. Bonds were steady.

took a decided upturn in price today, notwithstanding something of a decline at the start. The fact that the weather in the northwest had become less favorable and that prices in Winnipeg had sharply advanced was largely responsible for the bulge in the market here. Continuation of the urgent demand at Liverpool formed an additional influence against the bears. Opening prices which ranged from unchanged figures to 3/4 cent down, were followed by a rise all around to 1 cent or more above Saturday's close.

Improved export demand was subsequently the cause of a further advance. Moreover, the United States visible supply total failed to increase as much as the trade had expected. Prices closed buoyant. 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 above Saturday's close, with December at 10 1/2 and May at 10 3/4.

Late strength of wheat was also reflected by corn. The close was firm at 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cent net advance.

Corn rallied with wheat. Buying orders, though, were mainly for small amounts. After opening unchanged to 1/4 cent lower, the market scored a moderate general gain.

Oats responded to the strength of other cereals. Besides there was a good demand from the seaboard. Lack of support caused provisions to decline. Higher quotations on hogs were virtually ignored.

Picture Shows and The Sabbath

If the voters approve, we would give to the people of Portsmouth and surrounding community, a pleasure, a recreation, an elevating and educational moral entertainment which has been denied them on Sunday,—though from coast to coast with very few exceptions, the enterprising cities have taken a liberal attitude toward Sunday picture shows. At the request of a large number of Portsmouth's citizens, who desire for themselves the privilege of Sunday moving pictures, just as the right to Sunday automobile trips, golfing, boating, bathing, etc., is given to others, the question is being submitted to the voters for their decision.

For a long time, every city of importance in Ohio has shown that it is the most popular move any city can make for its citizens to give them the privilege of Sunday pictures. Included in this happy group we can mention:

Akron, Alliance, Ashtabula, Bellaire, Canton, Cincinnati, Circleville, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Elyria, Findlay, Hamilton, Lima, Lorain, Mansfield, Middletown, Newark, Painesville, Sandusky, Springfield, Tiffin, Toledo, Warren, Waverly, Youngstown, Zanesville, and even Fullerton, Kentucky, across the river from Portsmouth.

Mr. And Mrs. C. N. Anderson Go Over 150 Ft. Embankment Near Huntington In An Auto

Almost miraculous was the escape from serious injury of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Anderson and party of friends Sunday afternoon when their automobile, a Franklin Sedan, went over an embankment, 150 feet high, near their home city, Huntington.

The machine brought up on all four wheels, and did not overturn. All of the passengers were severely shaken up, but Mr. Anderson was the only one that suffered injury. He sustained a bad gash, one inch long, over his left eye, which penetrated to the bone, and other minor bruises about his head and face.

Local relatives received first news of the accident through the Times Monday morning. Details of the accident were obtained over the telephone by W. B. Anderson, of the Anderson Brothers company, who is a brother of Charles N. Anderson, of the Anderson-Newcomb company, of Huntington.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and two lady friends were driving up Whitaker Hill, a new residential section of Huntington, to look at a lot which Mr. Anderson had recently purchased. Mrs. Anderson was driving at a fair rate of speed up the hill. About midway up the hill is a sharp reverse curve. In making the turn, the car skidded on the wet road, and plunged over the steep embankment.

Mr. Anderson was at his office Monday morning but was feeling the effects of his injuries. His wife, who was uninjured, is also suffering much from the shock of her experience. The other two passengers were uninjured.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel, the efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but leave no bad after-effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. They are the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that nagging feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

Claims Woman Put Her Arms About Him And Led Him Away

Doc Waddell was the name given by a young man whose wife, Mrs. Ollie Waddell, prosecuted him in the mayor's court Monday on a charge of disorderly conduct.

It was brought out at the hearing of the case that Waddell had contracted a disease recently. He admitted having gone for a walk with another woman, saying he was drunk and homeward bound when she accosted him on Mill street, saying "Come on home," at the same time placing her arm about him. The next thing he remembered he found himself stretched out under the river bank. He professed his love for his wife, who, he said, is a good woman and expressed deep regret for his act. The couple has two children.

Waddell was dismissed with the understanding that he locate and bring to the attention of the police the woman he had met, the mayor promising her a soft berth in order to protect other men falling victim to her wiles.

Diamonds

We sell the finer grades of diamonds only. There is a wealth of meaning in that simple statement. So many people must depend upon the word of their jeweler in the purchase of a diamond, that it is essential that the firm from whom you buy should be known dependable in the business for years, and with a reputation for honesty, permanence and trustworthiness beyond dispute. To assure the most perfect stones, we insist upon making a personal selection, which must comply with our standard in quality—a system we have used for the past ten years. This is one of the many safeguards employed by us for your protection. See us before buying.

NEW BOSTON

Charles Dixon, J. O. Harris and Frank Wolfe, fire, water and marshal committee of council, got busy Monday morning to arrange a home for the village's fire truck. The plan of using the old mayor's office has been abandoned. A small frame structure 30 feet long with an 11-foot front, will be built on the east side of the town hall, giving the building an opening on Gallia street.

The addition will mean the closing of three windows on the east side of the town hall.

Rev. Benjamin Porter, aged resident of Grace street, who is only able to be out in his wheel chair when the weather permits, was in attendance Sunday morning at the Christian Sunday school services. Rev. Porter gave a short talk after Bible school. Rev. Porter supervised the erection of the Union Baptist church in Clay township in 1890 and he also conducted services at the Elias Patton Baptist Chapel in 1897. He gladly welcomes all visitors to his home.

Health Officer Martin Hall has completed his report for the last month which shows 15 cases of diphtheria; 2 of scarlet fever, 1 of typhoid fever; and 2 of pneumonia. A number of complaints were received about vaults, but nothing can be done until the sanitary sewer is ready for use.

Ben Brooks, steel worker, of Gallia street, who has been visiting home folks at Manchester, O., returned home Sunday. Brooks was injured at the steel plant several weeks ago.

Mayor Davis was not a bit surprised Monday morning when he found several of his large placards posted on telephone poles Saturday, torn down and others with his picture cut out.

The meeting at the Baptist church Sunday evening was largely attended. Rev. J. J. Hopper delivered a splendid sermon and special music was rendered by the choir. Every one present was greatly impressed with Rev. Hopper's sermon.

John Emmert and Druggist Ernest Coburn left Sunday evening in the Emmert machine for Cleveland. Mrs. Phil Emmert, who has been visiting in the Lake City for some time, will return home with her son and Mr. Coburn Tuesday. Earl Fischbach is in charge of the Coburn pharmacy and post-office Station A.

Rev. Zach Thacker held a meeting Saturday evening at the First Christian church. Sunday he conducted preaching services morning, afternoon and evening. Rev. Thacker was definitely hired for the coming year Saturday night. He will return the third Sunday in November.

Mace Allen, of Cedar street, who has been suffering with heart trouble, is but little better.

John Emmert, of Gallia street, had his right knee injured Sunday after being in the Ironton-Tiger football game three minutes and had to retire. The knee has bothered Emmert for two years.

Denny King has the contract for painting the Roy DeWitt barber shop on Gallia street.

Members of the Socialist Local will meet Wednesday evening.

Martin Hall, Ohio avenue dairyman, bought his seventh cow Monday. He purchased the cow from John Aehl, of South Webster.

Manchester, Oct. 25.—Captain Alfred Pennywitt fell from a ladder and broke his left hip. He was born on Gift Ridge in January, 1840, and served throughout the civil war in Company I of the 39th Regiment. A greater part of his life has been spent on steamboats between Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. He was the captain of the Virginia-Steale City for nearly twenty years.

Squire John W. Byron went to Columbus Sunday to visit his sister, Lydia Byron, who is in a critical condition. Hope for her recovery has been abandoned. He returned Sunday night.

GIRLS LEAP

twenty-six girls and six men were at work when the fire broke out. The bodies recovered were so badly burned as to be unrecognizable.

Minnie Bittner, one of the girls who jumped from the burning building, died while on the way to the hospital, bringing the known dead to twelve. Loretta Link, Margaret Kinsler, Kate Bittner, Gertrude Neidt, Mollie Arnold and Margaret Steingwald were taken to hospitals suffering from burns and broken limbs. The driver of a fire engine on its way to the fire was crushed when the engine overturned and it was feared he would die. Another fireman was overcome by smoke and was said to be in a critical condition. Soon after three o'clock firemen penetrated to the girls dressing room in the factory where they found three bodies on the floor. The girls had been suffocated. One of them was identified by her brother as Cecilia Jose, as the body was taken into the street. A few minutes later three more bodies were found, two of them badly burned but the other was said by persons living in the neighborhood to be Florence Becker, who obtained work in the factory only a day or two ago.

conspiracy and held without bail for examination tomorrow. The arraignment of the two men disclosed the fact that a third man, Paul Daeche, had been arrested early today at his home in Jersey City, after New York and New Jersey police had searched the house. Daeche was also arraigned with Fay and Scholz and held without bail.

Daeche said he was thirty-four years old, that he came to this country from Germany in 1912, and was a graduate of Cologne University.

Saturday last, detectives hidden in a tree top, watch the scene of their activities for eleven hours. They say they saw the two men come there late at night and test an explosion by blowing up a tree. Again yesterday the police watched in the woods and saw Fay and Scholz burning a powder and testing an explosive. When the test was completed the detectives arrested them. According to the police, Fay offered $1,000 to be set free.

telegrams to friends in this city to join him. Touring on a special train, the former secretary of state will visit forty-one counties and deliver forty-six speeches during the week. Whether he will discuss anything but the wet and dry issue was a question which Anti-Saloon league leaders here could not answer.

In addition to the speech at Steubenville, Mr. Bryan's itinerary today calls for addresses at Uhrichsville, New Philadelphia, Coshocton, Newark, New Lexington and Zanesville. The Zanesville speech will be delivered tonight. The second day's tour begins with a speech at Lancaster. After several cities in southern Ohio have been visited, a temperance rally will be held in Columbus.

While the dry forces are conducting their whirlwind campaign, the wets also will be busy. Several speakers are to be sent out from their headquarters to argue against prohibition and an extensive advertising campaign has been planned.

FIRST LINK

The only favorable news from the standpoint of the Entente powers is found in the optimistic reports concerning the Franco-Serbian offensive near Krivopaluk, where the Bulgarians are said to be giving way before a vigorous attack. If the British forces have left Saloniki, no news of their movements has been disclosed. Reports from various sources say the Entente powers have revised their original plans and now propose to land a tremendous contingent at Saloniki. This would serve the double purpose of meeting the demands of Greece and of giving effective assistance to Serbia.

Athens reports that the Greek crown prince has gone to Saloniki, where he will view the inspiring stream of French and British fighting men. It is thought here that the strength of the forces ultimately landed may decide whether Greece will throw her lot with the Allies.

Although the Serbians have not admitted the loss of Uskup, the English press accepts it as a fact, as it does the announcement that the Germans have crossed the Danube at Orsava. This means that, with the Bulgarians holding Prigovo, union of their forces with the Austrians and Germans in this quarter is not far off. Unless the Serbians or their allies can strike a sudden blow, the first link in the chain from Berlin to Constantinople will be forged.

Fighting on the Riga-Devinsk front has broken out with renewed intensity. Though the Germans apparently have been losing heavily, they have captured the village of Riga, southeast of Riga and have taken Blomst, north-west of Devinsk. The tone of dispatches from Petrograd, however, is hopeful and while it is seen that Riga may fall, the belief is expressed that there will be no recurrence of the familiar dashing German advance. The general view is that the Germans are planning a final spring before settling down in winter quarters.

Brilliant Success
French Troops In
Paris, Oct. 25.—French troops gained a brilliant success by effecting a junction with the Serbs at Krivopaluk, says a dispatch to the Petit Parisien from Athens. The dispatch, dated Sunday, says: "Bulgarian troops in force were attacking in three columns, when our troops, by a daring maneuver, turned the Bulgarians' right flank while the Serbs launched an energetic counter-attack along the front. At the end of the day the Bulgarians beat a retreat in the direction of Strumitsa pursued by French troops and Serbian cavalry."

Bulgarian operations against Plovdiv were fruitless, therefore they seem to intend to concentrate efforts on Vranje and are trying to attack in mass formation on fortifications and positions occupied by the Serbs at Vlasovo. The Bulgarians are stopped on the Timok, while the Austro-Germans are held up on the northwestern front on the Save and Danube. Military circles here believe that the Austro-Germans will not resume the offensive in the north until the Bulgarians are gaining a definite success are able to affect a junction with them.

Major Dan Morgan Smith Tells Why He Withdrew From Model License League

Stating clearly his reasons for withdrawing from the league as he said it was a useless task for the fact that he took the stump for the wet in 1911. Major Dan Morgan Smith delivered a very interesting dry speech in Trinity M. E. church Saturday evening and before he was half way through his talk his audience was convinced that he was perfectly sincere in his statements and his address was one of the most interesting heard in the campaign, which is rapidly drawing to a close.

Major Smith, who admitted that he was formerly employed as general counsel for the so-called Model License League stated that owing to the interference of the brewers, distillers and saloonists he withdrew from the league as he said it was a useless task for the fact that he took the stump for the wet in 1911. Major Dan Morgan Smith delivered a very interesting dry speech in Trinity M. E. church Saturday evening and before he was half way through his talk his audience was convinced that he was perfectly sincere in his statements and his address was one of the most interesting heard in the campaign, which is rapidly drawing to a close.

"I realize that I am enacting a new role in this campaign, but I like, in fact I am in love with it," said Major Smith, who Saturday afternoon also addressed a splendid audience in the village of Wheelersburg, where his remarks against the liquor traffic in every form were liberally applauded.

"I, like thousands of other men have seen a new light and we should not be condemned for that. Sooner or later every reasonable, clear thinking man in Scioto county, in the state of Ohio and the United States will come to a realization of the fact that the open saloon is a curse and a menace to any community and it must go."

Quoted Liberally From The Times

Major Smith quoted liberally from the Portsmouth Times of October 6, 1911, which carried a complete account of the speech he made in the wet tent in this city. Taking up each statement the speaker proceeded to show how weak it was when linked with what he called a dry, reasonable and sensible argument.

"I advocated the passage of a model license law in the honest belief that it would take the liquor business out of politics and the law breaker out of the liquor business. After having drafted this law for Oregon, Virginia, California, Indiana and many other states as well as model license ordinances for Tampa, Los Angeles, Worcester, Mass., and Saginaw, Mich., and in numerous cities between

I became convinced that the only way to take the liquor business out of politics and the law breaker out of the liquor business is to utterly destroy the liquor business.

"They would not clean up so they must be cleaned out."

"I came to this conclusion when it became evident to me that the model license league would be thwarted by the wholesale liquor association and the brewers' association in their every effort to pass a model license law. These two last named associations are the dominant factors in the liquor business. They have the most money and they control things."

"The liquor people cannot pretend that they could not have passed a model license law had they desired. There were many cities where their influence over the city council was absolute. There many states where they have sufficient control over the legislature to secure any legislation desired."

"A prescription that is never filled cannot cure a disease—proposed legislation that is never passed cannot effect a remedy."

"With the conviction that model license would never be passed and the passage of the Webb-Kenyon Bill that made possible the enforcement of prohibitory laws came the conviction that the evils of the liquor business could only be cured by the severe and drastic remedy of prohibition."

"Two years and a half elapsed between my employment by the liquor people and my employment by the Anti-Saloon League of America. Surely such a lapse of time freed me from all previous obligations incident to my employment and left me free to engage against my former stand."

Here the speaker spread before him a copy of the Portsmouth Daily Times of Oct. 6, 1911, containing a full account of the speech made by him in the big wet tent on behalf of the liquor side in Portsmouth's wet and dry fight of that year.

Reading from 'The Times' the speaker met his former argument that if decency could be best secured by legislation against the article, missed, the Almighty would have abolished the apple instead of punishing Adam and Eve. The major said, "Wisdom came to Adam and Eve only after the fruit of knowledge—the apple—was eaten, therefore my conclusion is that man was given reason above that of the brutish beast in order that he might not only avoid evil but that he should remove the evil from the path of his less alert fellow man."

He gave the price of a drink as "ranging from a dime to damnation," and said "the workman pays the dime when he gets the drink, and pays the damnation when the drink gets him."

Quoting from his former speech: "I happened to be a teetotaler. I have no more right to say to you you shall not drink, than you have to say to me I shall drink." Major Smith expressed wonder that such an absurd statement should have remained unchallenged so long. "If that were true," he said, "it would necessarily follow that if you had the right to pass laws that I shall not commit murder I would have the right to pass laws that you should commit murder—an absurdity on the face of it."

In answer to his former assertion "prohibition would be a joke only if costs too much for the laugh," he contrasted the cost of prohibition with the cost of drink asserting that property destroyed by prohibition would be but a bagatelle beside the waste caused by alcohol.

TOOK THE PLEDGE

Painter Ed Little, who was in police court on a drunkenness charge Saturday morning, took a solemn pledge to abstain from liquor for a year and kissed the Bible on which his hand rested whilst taking the oath. Mayor Frick predicted that Little would be drunk before night. In the afternoon he saw officers dragging the man in. He was in a helpless state. Little was ordered to pay another $5 fine.

Police Clean Up Assault Mystery

Tom Hughes, a plumber, admitted in police court Monday that it was he who assaulted Vivian Koger one night during the recent Korn Carnival. The police had ever since been busy investigating the assault. Hughes claimed Koger interfered with him taking a glass of beer in Charles Berry's saloon, and had also called him vile names. Koger denied this, saying he was not introduced to Hughes as claimed by him, had not exchanged words with him and walked right out after he, himself, drank a glass of beer. When he got as far as the Salvage store he was knocked down from behind. Hughes was fined $25 and costs.

WETS PLAN HOT FINISH TO COUNTY CAMPAIGN

Wet leaders have arranged a busy speaking campaign for the city and county during the closing eight days of the campaign against the state-wide prohibition amendment. Five big meetings are scheduled for this city, with three full days devoted to tour of the most populous centers in the rural districts.

Early this morning, Dr. Brose, of Gas City, Ind., accompanied by Joseph Switalski, the wet campaign manager, started out on an automobile tour of the western part of the county, speeches being scheduled at the following places: Lucasville, 8:30; Sedan, 10:00; Mt. Joy, 11:00; Rarden, 12:00; Lombardsville, 2:30; McDermott, 4:00; Pond Run, 6:00; Buena Vista, 7:30.

F. E. Lloyd, former member of the Illinois state legislature, who spoke here last year, will speak again at Distel's hall Wednesday evening. He made a fine impression last year.

On Thursday, a whirlwind automobile tour of the eastern part of county will be made by C. S. Magruder, of Columbus, editor of the Liberal Advocate. The speaking schedule is: 9:00 a. m., Firebrick; 9:45, Effort; 10:30, Bloom; 11:15, South Webster; 4:30, Scioto Furnace; 7:00, Seiotoville.

Charles H. Wirmel, former state commissioner of labor, will speak at Distel's hall, corner Seventh and Chillicothe streets, Friday evening. He is well known in this city, especially among local labor leaders, having often spoken here.

An all day meeting will be held at Garvin's Grove at Rarden, Saturday. The speaker during the morning is K. V. Eiser, of Springfield, while Judge C. M. Showalter of West Virginia will speak in the afternoon. Preparations are being made to entertain a large crowd.

On next Sunday evening that brilliant young attorney of Memphis, Tenn., Charles M. Bryan, who has twice spoken here before large audiences, will make this third speech against state-wide prohibition in this city, at Distel's hall, corner Seventh and Chillicothe streets.

The campaign will close Monday evening with an address by Hon. Vernon J. Rose, of Kansas City, who has also spoken here, at Distel's hall.

CAMP WOMAN USES GUN AND CAUSES A BIG SCARE

A woman known as "Marie", who is located in the Robert Gray construction camp near Stockdale created much excitement in that vicinity Sunday afternoon by a bit of gun play she gave from the middle of the row and the incident would probably have been attended by serious results had not John Crabtree a storekeeper of Stockdale, at the risk of his own life rushed to the woman and disarmed her.

It is claimed that "Marie" who is a pretty little Italian woman fired four or five shots at two men, who were passing the camp in a buggy, but none of the bullets took effect.

It was reported that one man was shot and that one of the horses also was shot.

The trouble started when "Marie" missed something from her camp quarters and thinking the men might have had something to do with it she fired at them it is claimed.

HEARING THE APPEAL AGAINST INCORPORATION

Hearing of the appeal from the action of the county commissioners in approving the incorporation of Sciotoville is being held in common pleas court today before Judge James S. Thomas. The appellants, Walter Beloit and others, claim that the proceedings were irregular, that the map offered is inaccurate, and that the original petition did not contain the signatures of thirty bona fide residents of the territory. Denial is made of all those allegations by the defendants, C. J. Marting and others.

Evidence for the plaintiffs was completed before the noon recess, and the testimony of the defendants is being adduced this afternoon. Attorneys are Blair and Kimble for the plaintiffs, and Miller, Miller and Searl for the defendants.

RALPH SHARMAN BOSS HITTER IN OHIO STATE

Ralph Sharmen, brilliant centerfielder of the Portsmouth team, who was sold to the New York Giants, has the honor of leading the Ohio State league in hitting. The official averages will show that Sharmen the past season hit at a .374 clip. In 103 games he made 147 hits and scored 75 runs.

Here is how the other members of the Portsmouth team batted last season: Jacobs, .328; Dilts, .308; Caton, .305; McHenry, .297; Spencer, .282; Dillhoefer, .280; Johnson, .276; Mills, .271; Bush, .215; Thimmes, .189; Test, .134; Ferguson, .09, and McCall, .07.

Portsmouth led in team batting, the club as a unit hitting at the remarkable clip of .311. Maysville was second with .252, so it is small wonder that Portsmouth copped the pennant.

Portsmouth was fifth in fielding, finishing with a fielding average of .937. Frankfort with .966. Perry of Ironton and Emmer of Maysville were the best third sackers; McClellan of Lexington led the shortstops; Sharmen the outfielders; Blackwell the catchers; Hudson of Charleston first sackers; Bush and Shater were the best second basemen in the league.

The pitching records of the league will show that Test won 21 and lost 6, Jacobus 19 and 9, McCall 4 and 2, Ferguson 13 and 11 and Hancock 8 and 9.

Dillhoefer of the local team led in run scoring. In 103 games he scored 83 runs. Dilts was second with 81 and Sharmen third with 75.

Calbert of Ironton led base stealers with 36 thefts. Caton stole 32 and Sharmen 31.

De Berry of Maysville led the sluggers.

New Boston Arrows Beaten By Ironton

Lonie Chinn, left end for the New Boston Arrows, made a record run Sunday at Ironton when he picked up a fumble made by Ironton on Portsmouth's three yard line and raced down the field over Ironton's goal for a touchdown, not an Ironton man attempting to run the 97 yards with Chinn.

When the game was over Ironton Rags had 24 points to the Arrows' 6. The defeat can be attributed to the poor defensive work of the Arrows and the failure of the half backs to cover up Ironton ends on forward passes. Portsmouth worked several passes for good gains but the Ironton line held on line plunges. The game was 6 and 6 at the end of the first half, Ironton scoring a touchdown on a pass over the line at the end of the second quarter. In the second half the Ironton backfield suffered a complete change three fresh men going in. The teams will battle here in two weeks. The lineups:

A FEW PUNTS AND PASSES

The defeat of Michigan by the Michigan Aggies was one of the surprises perpetuated in the football world Saturday. The Wolverines were trounced 24 to 0.

State put up a bitter struggle against Wisconsin and for awhile it looked like the Badgers might be held to a scoreless tie, but they broke loose in the last two periods and O. S. U. was beaten 21 to 0.

Hiram beat Dothan Saturday 71 to 0. Orville Roberts, of this city, played a great game at fullback for Hiram.

Denison romped away from the University of Cincinnati Saturday, the final being a 35 to 0 affair. U. of C. was outclassed before the teams took the field.

It looks like Cornell is in for a great year on the gridiron. The Wisconsin over East are already contending that Cornell will win the Eastern championship. The team got a great start when it wallowed unbeatable Harvard Saturday 10 to 0.

It looks like Coach Vest has a rather inferior team up in Ann Arbor this season. It always looks that way until Michigan begins to play her Eastern opponents.

For the first time in recent years Case beat Oberlin Saturday. Oberlin has a light team and one that can do nothing but execute the intricate forward pass.

Poor old Yale. The Sons of Eli are white meat for all of them this fall. W. & J. beat Yale 14 to 6 Saturday.

Ironton High added another victory to her list Saturday by defeating Gallipolis by a score of 2 to 0. The game was played in Ironton. Captain Davis, Ross, McKee, Hayes and Hancy played fine ball for Ironton. Ironton's line plunging resulted in big gains.

Mines, who is well remembered as center for the Huntington high school eleven last season, is playing center for Marshall College this year and is putting up his usual star game.

Workman, who played quarterback for Huntington high school several years and performed here against P. H. S. eleven, is playing quarterback for Marshall College.

Pitcher Meyers, who twirled for Ironton in the Ohio State League last season, is captain and halfback on the strong Marshall College eleven of Huntington. Lawrence is the pitcher's right name.

Karsch, who is playing a swell game at guard for Ohio State, played here three years ago as tackle with the South High eleven of Columbus on Thanksgiving Day.

First Case
The first diphtheria case of the season at Friendship made its appearance there Saturday, with Louise, six-year-old daughter of William Lewis, as the victim.

Fast Jackson Eleven Is Beaten When Brandle Scores Touchdown

"Pete" Brandel, P. H. S. chubby center, played an all-star part in the Portsmouth-Jackson high school football game Saturday, when he recovered a Jackson fumble and ran for forty yards for the only touchdown of the game. Wilson kicked goal, making the Portsmouth score 7, Jackson 0.

One of the largest crowds that ever attended a high school game at Millbrook was present. P. H. S. was highly elated over the Huntington game and took the field with the idea that Jackson would prove easy prey, but the game was not five minutes old when the locals decided they were up against a real football eleven.

Jackson fumbled on the kick off, but one of their men recovered the oval. Jackson punted. Portsmouth tried a forward pass and failed. A pass was tried again and a Jackson man caught the piskin instead of a local. Jackson made a fine pass, followed up with line plunges, which carried the ball into Portsmouth's territory. The locals got the ball on downs and were penalized for being off side. Quinn punted. Jackson made gains in line plunges and within striking distance of the P. H. S. goal tried to drop kick. Nutter blocked the ball and carried it for 50 yards. Portsmouth made a pass which a Jackson player received. Jackson punted. The punt was blocked and Wilson carried the ball to Jackson's 10 yard line.

Portsmouth had the ball on Jackson's five yard line and lost it on downs. Jackson worked a 26 yard pass and line plunges carried the ball to the middle of the field where the visitors lost the oval when they punted. Wilson fumbled and Jackson recovered. The visitors lost on downs. Portsmouth tried a run and Quinn punted. The Jackson fullback carried the ball for big gains through the line.

Jackson punted and Wilson fumbled. Wagner recovered the piskin. Portsmouth failed to make ten yards and Quinn punted. Jackson tried to take a play on the 25 yard line and fumbled. Wagner recovered the ball. Quinn made a 50 yard punt which went for naught as the locals were off side on the play. Quinn punted the ball over Jackson's goal, Jackson being given the ball on their 30 yard line.

The first half ended with the Jackson quarter back making a 45 yard run around right end. Wilson took the kick off at the opening of the second half. P. H. S. was penalized for off side play. Quinn punted the Jackson fullback, remaining ten yards after making the catch. Jackson was penalized for being off side. Jackson punted. Shoemaker receiving. Quinn punted. Jackson was penalized five yards for off side play. The visitors worked a forward pass.

Portsmouth got the ball in the middle of the field on downs. A pass was attempted and Jackson received it. Jackson punted and P. H. S. fumbled. Portsmouth received the ball on downs. Quinn was shifted to the back field and made a ten-yard run. Wilson made a 15 yard run.

The fourth quarter opened with the ball in Jackson's possession on their 60 yard line. Jackson after several line plunges tried a fake play. One of the players fumbled the ball and Brandel slipping through and picked up the oval, started for the Jackson goal. After a good 40 yard run he planted the ball squarely behind the posts. This was the only touchdown made in the game.

Captain Kendall, of the visitors, was loudly cheered when he went into the fray in the last quarter. Kendall was out of the game with injuries.

H. H. Eccles, coach of the Jackson team, brought the visitors to the city in automobiles.

Eight of the Jackson players were members of the Jackson eleven last season.

Coach Eccles said after the game he expected P. H. S. at least to make three touchdowns.

Fullback Evans and Quarterback Jones, of the visitors, played star football.

"Pete" Brandel, the local's center, was in every play. "Pete" is generally at the bottom of the heap, but always comes up smiling.

Captain Dmewell and Quinn made splendid tackles and Quinn executed a number of long punts. Wilson made several big gains through the line and around ends.

Portsmouth's interference Saturday showed improvement over the brawl exhibited in the Huntington game.

Who The Candidates Are

The Democratic city campaign committee is giving the voters a presentation of a brief review of the careers and records of candidates for office on the Democratic city ticket, believing that the people should be well informed upon the manner of men who come before them seeking their franchises. Read and reflect and then, remembering what has been done and what is promised, consider as to whether or not these men are entitled to your support as executives of city business, your business, if you please, for the coming two years.

WM. GERGENS, Chm.
WM. GABLEMAN, Sec.

GEORGE L. GABLEMAN FOR CITY AUDITOR

Ability, punctuality and courtesy—these requisites of a successful public servant, are fully met up in the person of George L. Gableman, who comes before the voters this fall as candidate for a second term as city auditor on the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Gableman went into the auditor's office as deputy under his brother Will, six years ago. During this period he has had the remarkable record of never having missed a session of city council. More singular still, he was for six years previous to this, a reporter on local newspapers and had the regular city council assignment, during which time he did not miss over a half dozen meetings of the city's legislative body.

This experience has brought him into intimate touch with city affairs during the whole period. A natural booster, he has, both in his press and public career, striven always for the advancement of the city's welfare. He has made a study of municipal finances and his conduct of the office has won him high praise from the various state and local accounting authorities.

When Mr. Gableman went into the auditor's office six years ago, the bonded indebtedness of the city was less than $1,000,000.00. Now it is $1,700,000.00. The number of street paving jobs that had been previously let was 60. This number is 134, and the assessment accounts have more than doubled. Pay rolls have doubled, expenditures on vouchers have multiplied 100 percent, but Mr. Gableman is proud of the fact that this increased accounting has not caused him to ask for a single additional clerk. This is a notable exception to the rule in this locality.

Two years ago Mr. Gableman was elected for his first term by the handsome plurality of 736 votes. Although the city council had a Republican majority, and could have named a clerk of this faith, he was paid the high compliment of being unanimously chosen to this important position. In this capacity he has been most courteous to fellow officials and to citizens of all shades of political opinion.

It may be interesting to observe, that since the adoption of the code for Ohio cities in 1903, which created among other offices that of city auditor, there has been virtually but one change in the local auditor's office. Mr. Elmore Musser was the first city auditor and by grace of the laws changes he had to be a candidate but twice during a tenure of office of seven years. During this time he made a notably good record. In Mr. Musser's second campaign, the Democrats placed no opposition against him, although it was the year of the Searcy landslide, and a Democrat would have stood a good chance to win. But Democrats and independent voters were gratified that the city's accounting department was in efficient hands. To the credit of a number of broad minded Republicans, it should be said that they this year urged that George Gableman be given a second term without opposition.

JACOB T. HOBSTETTER, FOR COUNCIL—FOURTH WARD

One of those stalwart workers, who go to make up the sturdy laboring class of Portsmouth, is Jacob T. Hobstetter, who is the Democratic candidate of council from the Fourth Ward.

Mr. Hobstetter resides at 1227 Hutchins street, in the heart of the fast growing hill top territory. Inasmuch as that section of Portsmouth will doubtless witness the city's next large expenditure of public money, in the way of a complete storm and sanitary sewer system, it would behoove the Fourth Ward residents to give serious consideration to Mr. Hobstetter's character and fitness. That being done his friends are confident that he will be elected to represent the mighty Fourth Ward in the next council.

At present Mr. Hobstetter holds the position of carpenter foreman at the Irving Drew factories. He took employment with the old Heer Shoe company in 1901 and when it was merged with the Drew company, he remained with the firm and has been with it continuously ever since. A born mechanic, it would seem that the Fourth Ward should feel gratified to get a practical building man to help oversee the many improvements scheduled for that section of the city.

Mr. Hobstetter is one of the oldest of the big family of Hobstetter boys, all of whom are worthy representatives of the city's working class. He is married and with his good wife, is a member of the Second Presbyterian church. He has long been active in lodge and fraternal circles and has been frequently honored by election to their offices and as representative to state and district conventions. He is punctual in his engagements and his ward would find him always on the job.

PHILLIP JACOBS FOR CITY SOLICITOR

Phillip Jacobs, the Democratic candidate for city solicitor, was born and reared in Portsmouth. He attended the public schools, graduated from our high school, later graduated from the College of Arts, Philosophy and Science of the Ohio State university and after studying law at the law school of this university and of those of the University of Michigan and the Western Reserve University, was admitted to the bar of this state. Coming home, he immediately opened an office and has since been successfully practicing his chosen profession.

Not only has he received an academic and legal training but he has received that from practice and observation as well. He was for many years engaged in business with his father and from him has received the knowledge of experience. Moreover, he early learned to know that no man is too high and no man too low; that no man is too wise and no man is too ignorant, but that he can teach us something; that neither wealth nor position make the man, but that he is a man rich or poor, be he a day laborer or be he a captain of industry, if he shall do his work faithfully and well, then is he a successful man whose advice should be listened to.

Contrary to popular opinion, the attending to matters of litigation is one of the minor duties of the office of city solicitor. He is the legal adviser of each and every official in the city government, including the members of council. It is he who draws and enforces for the city, its contracts, its ordinances, its legal notices and its documents of a like nature. It is he who must take care of all conveyances of land to and from the city. It is he who must see that the city officers follow the laws in the performance of their duties. In fact, he is in constant touch with each and every official and department of the city.

Mr. Jacobs brings practical, academic and professional training to the performance of the duties of this very important office. That he will bring integrity will be certified to by all those who have had business or professional relations with him. They will tell you that "his word is as good as his bond," as they Democrats, Republicans, Socialists.

If elected, Mr. Jacobs promises to devote to them, all the time that the duties of the office demand and to bear in mind that the office is provided for lending the city a service and not for providing the incumbent a salary.

GET NEW KIDNEYS!

The kidneys are the most over-worked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering out and throwing off the poisons developed in the system, things begin to happen.

One of the first warnings is pain or stiffness in the lower part of the back; highly colored urine; loss of appetite; indigestion, irritation, or even stone in the bladder. These symptoms indicate a condition that may lead to that dreaded and fatal malady, Bright's Disease, for which there is said to be no cure.

You can almost certainly find immediate relief in GOLD MEDAL, Haarlem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years this famous preparation has been an unfailing remedy for all kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. Get it at any drug store, and if it does not give you almost immediate relief, your money will be refunded. Prices, 25c, 50c, and $1.00. Be sure you get the GOLD MEDAL brand. None other genuine.

Holds Contract With Doctor For Services Not Legally Made

In a written opinion to the board of county commissioners Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait it holds that the contract entered into between the former board of commissioners and Dr. Harry Rapp of Navoo in August for medical services at the county infirmary, is illegal, inasmuch as the contract was not awarded by competitive bidding.

The prosecutor cites the section of the statutes governing such contracts and the opinion of former Attorney General T. S. Homan to the prosecuting attorney of Lawrence county in 1914 on a similar controversy.

However, Prosecutor Micklethwait suggests that Dr. Rapp be paid in full for services rendered, as he has performed such services in good faith.

The new board has taken no action in the matter, but it is understood that they will advertise for bids and enter into a contract with the lowest bidder.

Extra Fine Lots In Fair Nirvana

In the advertisement of the Nirvana addition, appearing in Saturday's Times, the most vital part was killed by an error in figures. The lots were stated as being 50x100 feet, when they are just twice that large, 100x200.

The promoters say they have a residential section most picturesquely located, a view of it will leave no doubt as to the accuracy of their statement, but while this is true and so the addition possesses a highly desirable feature from a residential standpoint, the stronger fact is, about this town where lots are usually so small those in Nirvana are altogether unusually large, thus making it possible not only to enhance their beauty by trees and flowers, but a garden may be laid out in them in which a family can grow all vegetables and fruits that may be needed for the table, grow them in such abundance that the saving in raising them above buying on the market will in itself pay for the investment, as the lots are offered at a moderate figure.

AGITATION and INTIMIDATION

Prohibition is an issue again this year only because Professional Agitators forced the proposed amendment on the ballot.

The voters thought they settled the liquor question in 1912 when they put into the Constitution by 85,000 majority the best liquor license provision ever written into law. The Prohibition Amendment would repeal that successful provision of the Constitution.

In 1913 the Prohibition Agitators got the question before the people through the Anti-Ship-ping Bill. When the voters defeated that by 95,000 majority they were confident they had settled the question.

In 1914 the Agitators put state-wide prohibition on the ballot and that was defeated by 85,000 majority. The voters were sure that the matter was settled for all time.

But the Prohibition Agitators have forced the question on the ballot again this year, even though it is sure to be defeated.

Four votes in four years on the same general issue and majorities against the Agitators every time.

Prohibition agitation pays the professional Agitator well and costs you much.

FALSE CHARGES AND INTIMIDATION

Last year the prohibitionists sought votes by misstatements and garbled copies of the Home Rule Amendment. After their defeat at the polls they made charges of "election frauds." The purpose of those false charges, it now develops, was to pave the way for the intimidation now brazenly promised by the Professional Agitators.

Either the Ohio Home Rule Association or the local County Home Rule Associations opposed to prohibition, and the organizations that seek to defend the prohibition propaganda will have their legally accredited witnesses and challengers at the polls on election days as always.

Pursuing a policy of intimidation and coercion, the professional prohibitionists publicly threaten to have thousands of "dry" deputy sheriffs stationed at the voting places.

Are election officials so crooked that "dry" deputy sheriffs shall watch their every movement?

Are the voters of Ohio so dishonest that "dry" deputy sheriffs shall watch them mark their ballots.

The answer of the Ohio Home Rule Association is "NO." The Ohio Home Rule Association and Local Home Rule Associations have not asked and will not ask for the appointment of a single deputy sheriff at the coming election.

The threat of the professional prohibitionists is a slanderous attack upon the integrity of voters and election officers alike.

Ohio voters and Ohio election officers have a reputation for honesty and integrity unequalled by any other state.

This slander should be resented. A "NO" vote on prohibition will be a refutation of the charge of crookedness and a protest against intimidation.

The Norfolk Ledger Dispatch, in its Thursday's issue, carried the following account of the wedding of Dr. Harry R. Bybee, formerly of this city, now located in Norfolk, and Miss Lucille Perryman, of Winchester, Ky.:

"The marriage of Miss Lucille Perryman, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Perryman, to Dr. H. R. Bybee, of Norfolk, Va., was solemnized Tuesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents on French avenue.

The ceremony was performed in the living room of the beautiful home, where an altar was made of palms and ferns, the cathedral candles being used. About the altar was an artistic arrangement of yellow dahlias and white cosmos, the flowers being also used with charming effect in the reception hall, while the stairway was banked with cosmos and southern snail. Smiles were used with pleasing effect about the chandeliers in the various rooms and formed a curtain-like drapery between the reception hall and parlor.

Miss Corinne Perryman, sister of the bride, came first down the stairway and was followed by the charming bride resting on the arm of her father, Dr. G. W. Perryman. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom with his best man, Mr. G. H. Waters, of Cincinnati.

The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit and black velvet hat and wore a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Perryman, the maid of honor, wore a yellow George crepe costume, with large black picture hat, and carried a cluster of huge yellow chrysanthemums.

The ceremony was performed with impressive solemnity by Dr. Perryman, pastor of the Central Baptist church, and father of the bride, with the assistance of Dr. C. C. Carroll. Miss Beulah Perryman, the bride's sister, played the wedding march and Traumerl during the ceremony. Miss May Waters, of Danville, a cousin of the bride, who had charge of the bride's book, where the guests registered, wore an attractive gown of yellow crepe de chine. Following the ceremony the guests were shown to the dining-room, where delicious ices and cakes were served. The room was exquisitely decorated with great yellow dahlias and chrysanthemums, the centerpiece for the table being a tall silver vase filled with these beautiful flowers. The green and white color scheme for the refreshments and minis were daintily carried out. The lights of the chandelier were covered with transparent yellow shades, which lent a pretty gleam to the setting, while lighted candles in silver candelabra increased the attractiveness of the scene.

On account of a recent bereavement in the bride's family, the guests were limited to the relatives and the schoolmates of the bride, while at Georgetown college. After an extended trip in the North, Dr. and Mrs. Bybee will be at home in Norfolk, Va.

Dr. Bybee is a specialist for nervous and spinal troubles and has gained an enviable reputation in his profession. He is a young man of high integrity and pleasing personality. Miss Perryman is a talented musician and is known for her sweet and lovely disposition. Dear Dolly—"He" insists that while "we" are walking, "I" should hold "his" arm, and "I" say "he" should hold mine. Now which of us is in the right? When "he" wants me to wear a certain article which "he" thinks pretty, I should try to please him, now, shouldn't I? I've been going with him nearly a month.

HAZEL.
It isn't necessary to look arms unless one or the other is a cripple or can't see very well. You can use your own judgment about wearing things to please him.

Dear Miss Wise—Please tell me what to do in a case like the following: One night at a party a man asked to take me home. I refused, saying I had company. I really had no one, but I did not care for him. On the way home he saw me walking with my girl friend and her escort. Do you think I should explain things to him?

BLUE EYES.
I do not think you have anything to explain to the young man. The best thing to do is to let the matter drop. He should understand from your refusal that you do not care for his company. I do not think he will ask such permission again.

Dear Dolly—Will you kindly tell me how I can take olive oil so that it will be pleasant to the taste?
MARGARET.
Pour the oil between layers of lemon, orange or grape juice, and you will not get the taste of the oil. Another way to take the oil is in capsule form.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please let me know if it is proper to call a guest when arousing the members of the family? The guest has come to visit for a week.
HOSTESS.
If it would inconvenience you to let the guest get up at her own pleasure, it would be quite proper for you to call her at the time you are calling members of your family.

Dear Dolly—Some time ago you printed a formula for removing blackheads by dissolving the black and clearing the pores.

THE "RISE" OF NATE

NOT ACCURATE, BUT EFFECTIVE.

General and Congressman Isaac R. Sherwood decries the movement for an immense army and navy as "Military Hysteria." It is comforting to hear such sane and sane talk coming from a grand old hero. None can doubt his patriotism and few will question his wisdom since he has served his country so bravely in battle and in legislature.

The movement, however, against which he sets himself so sturdily and opportunely has not, as yet, progressed to the state of hysteria, unless that quality be inherent in a false pretence. For, though undoubtedly making considerable headway, the scheme for national defence has not taken full hold of the people, become an obsession with them. It had no origin in the public mind, but was born of interests that have little concern in the general weal, and it has been fostered and promoted by them until it does appear to have considerable support. But the masses remain indifferent, no matter what the profession otherwise. If they would look at the matter thoroughly there would not be such indifference. Huge standing armies, unreckoned battleships cost money. Money means taxes. Somebody will make fat fortunes out of the stores and the equipment that the money will be set to buying, and right there is the whole meat and compass of "the Security League and the National Defense." There is no thought, much less any purpose on the part of those furnishing the money to galvanize these projects into life, of them taking training as soldiers and qualifying themselves in the defense of an imperiled nation. The fighting is for the rabble to do, the promoters will feed, feast and grow fat on the honorable business that must be done in supplying the army and the nation.

VOTE AGAINST McDERMOTT LAW.

(Cincinnati Enquirer)

If the people of Ohio are in favor of actual regulation of the saloons, and by their vote in 1912 they so declared themselves, then they must be opposed to the so-called McDermott law, enacted by the last General Assembly. The wisdom of repealing the Greenlund law was questioned seriously by many Republican leaders and by the rank and file as well, but under the lash of party discipline the measure fostered by Senator McDermott was jammed through and one of the best liquor regulatory measures ever written into the statutes of Ohio was repealed.

The voters of Ohio will have opportunity on November 2 to determine whether or not this famous piece of legislation known as the McDermott law shall remain on the statute books or whether the same, sensible and forceful legislation enacted to carry out the mandate of the amended constitution, the Greenlund law, shall continue to exert its unquestioned and undeniable regulatory power. The McDermott law was enacted as the fulfillment of a political pledge, made for the purpose of securing votes; the other was framed with painstaking care, with an eye single to the great end in view, real regulation.

There was disclosed at Columbus within the week the actual results of the working of the Greenlund law. It was shown that more than 3,000 dives and disreputable places had been closed through its operation, and that Sunday observance in Ohio, became an actuality without coercion or duress, simply through the inherent strength of the measure. The passage of the McDermott law resulted almost immediately in infractions of the Sunday closing law, many saloon keepers believing that the strict regulatory features of the Greenlund law had been repealed by the enactment of the McDermott measure. These violators of the law were brought up with a short jerk by the State Commission, operating under the provisions of the Greenlund law, once again demonstrating its absolute effectiveness and strength.

If the McDermott law is sustained by the voters of Ohio in the referendum on November 2 it will mean that the question of liquor regulation will be a biennial battle in every county of the state. Men aspiring to certain county offices will be tested, not by their measure of fitness for holding office, but rather by how they stand on the question of the issuance of saloon licenses within the district over which they hold dominion.

From every standpoint the old law is satisfactory. The new measure added nothing to its strength, but detracted greatly therefrom. The clean-up that has been effected in Ohio was worth while, and the conditions that have been created should be maintained. Next to absolute prohibition no law can be more effective in the regulation of the liquor traffic.

Up to the present we have not heard that the Republican county executive committee has given Roy McElhenny that full and free endorsement for congress as it agreed to do when it unanimously endorsed him for everything or anything. Better take the tip of an old scout Roy and connect with that endorsement before the election. After the battle is over you will most likely get a swift kick where it hurts most when you call around for your papers.

True Charlie McCormick and Nate Gilliland and Roy McElhenny and Billy Gims are all footling horns in the Kaps band, but still we insist that the music will not sound right until Charlie Hard leads Harry Bannan up and puts him to making music on the big drum.

We suggest to the Star that the best way to find out just where Congressman Kearns stands or how he feels about being shunted off into a new district is to bring Kearns up here to make a speech and tell us all about it. We will pay half the expense of hiring a hall for him if Senator Tremper will pay the other half.

According to the newspapers the New Jersey suffragettes had it all their own way until it came to the voting, and then it was, oh, so different. From which we infer the average voter will lie as unconsistently to a woman as to a candidate.

Postmaster General Burleson says his department is not trying for economy, but for the best service at the least possible cost. Mighty difference when you come to think of it, and all the difference in favor of the best service.

It seems to be percolating into the cranium of our good young Governor, what was ever apparent to everyone else, his presidential candidacy is a joke. He is having hard enough time rattling around in the gubernatorial seat and making something that might be mistaken for a noise.

And yet some scoff at the phrase "irony of fate."

A theatrical mystery is romping up and down the Rialto. It centers around two mythical persons known as "Paul Hervey and Jean Briquet." Whenever Adolf Philipp produces a play these Frenchmen are heralded as the authors. They have gained quite a reputation in New York.

Now it is whispered that there are no such persons as "Hervey and Briquet." Philipp is declared to be the author of such plays as "Little Boy Blue," "Aimee," "Adele," "The Mid-night Girl," and "The Girl Who Smiles." "Hervey and Briquet" were supposed to be the collaborators.

It is a great laugh on the dramatic critics. The last play that was produced by these fictitious authors was roasted by one critic who said: "The play seems to have lost flavor in crossing the Atlantic." Philipp it seems wrote the piece in the neighborhood of Times Square.

 O'er the dreary, listless haze,
 White and dainty cloudlets float—
 Winking at the blushing trees.
 And the sombre, furrowed fallow,
 Smiling at the airy ease

 Sweet and smiling are the ways,
 Beauteous, golden Autumn days!

Slivering, quivering, tearful days,
 Fretful and sadly weeping;
 Dreading still, with anxious gaze,

DOUBLE ATTEMPT TO TAKE RAILROAD PROVES A FAILURE

Gradek, Serbia, Via Saloniki, Oct. 23, and Paris, Oct. 25.—The double attempt of the Bulgarians to cut the railway at Veles and in the Volandovo sector has been completely defeated. Yesterday (Friday) the attack on Veles was given up and the entire available Bulgarian strength was directed southward from Istip along the Gradiska river spreading out over a five-mile front and comprising the villages of Rabrovo, Volandovo, Piraud, Veszel, Kal-kova and Hadova with its objective a short stretch where the railway, running along the east bank of the Vardar river between two bridges, is the most pre-gnable at the Strumitsa section. The attack, although ferocious, immediately developed the inferiority of the Bulgarians in contact with the experienced troops of France and England. Heavy losses are reported along the entire line. The Bulgarians are withdrawing up the Gradiska valley leaving the French in victorious possession of the railway from Saloniki to Negotin, beyond which point the line is not threatened. The French losses were slight. General Serrail, the French commander-in-chief, in a statement to the Associated Press, characterized the Bulgarians' reports of the advance as fantastic. No when it said, have they advanced beyond a few points of no military importance close the frontier. An offensive movement by the allies seems imminent. The Greeks seem to be profoundly impressed by the rapidity and success of the French movement.

TAKE UP DEFENSE PROGRAM

Washington, Oct. 25.—The army defense program was up for consideration at a conference today between President Wilson and Chairman Hays of the house military affairs committee. The program as framed by Secretary Garrison already has been approved by the president in its general outlines and the conference was one of a series to be held this week for completing the details. Get busy, men! Don't let the fact that you are temporarily out of a job make your whole future look black. Read TIMES WANT ADS.

COLLAPSE OF ITALIAN ATTACKS REPORTED

BONAR LAW TO BE ENGLAND'S PREMIER?

AUSTRIANS CLAIM PROGRESS ALONG THEIR BATTLE LINES

Vienne, via London, Oct. 25.—The official statement issued Sunday night by the Austrian war office tells of desperate efforts by the Italians to penetrate the Austrian front. The statement says: "In the Russian theater near Novit Alexinec we recaptured heights east of Lopazano, which we evacuated Friday. Near Czartorysk, our attacks are progressing. Near Kim-arow we repulsed the enemy. Otherwise the situation is unchanged. Italian theatre: "The general Isongo battle continues. Infantry attacks conducted yesterday with unprecedented bitterness includes also attacks against the bridgehead at Qerz. All the enemy's attacks collapsed before the tenacious resistance of our infantry. We were splendidly assisted by formidable artillery. The main Italian attack was accom-

Andrew Bonar Law. A crisis seems at hand in the English cabinet, and the resignation of Premier Asquith would surprise no one. If Asquith resigns it is believed that he will be succeeded by Andrew Bonar Law. Law's present cabinet position is secretary for the colonies.

BRYAN OPENS A SIX DAY FIGHT AGAINST OHIO LIQUOR TRAFFIC

Columbus, Oct. 25.—William J. Bryan, former secretary of state, speaking at Steubenville, this morning, began a six day campaign for the adoption of a proposed state wide prohibition amendment to the Ohio constitution, which will be voted in the November election. Bryan arrived in Steubenville last night, almost 24 hours before he was expected and immediately sent telegrams to friends in this city to join him. Touring on a special train, the former secretary of state will visit forty-one counties and deliver forty-six speeches during the week. Whether he will discuss anything but the wet and dry issue was a question which Anti-Saloon league leaders here could not answer. In addition to the speech at Steubenville, Mr. Bryan's itinerary today calls for addresses at Uhrichsville, New Philadelphia, Coshocton, Newark, New Lexington, and Zanesville. The Zanesville speech will be delivered tonight. The second day's tour begins with a speech at Lancaster. After several cities in southern Ohio have been visited, a temperance rally will be held in Columbus. While the dry forces are conducting their whirlwind campaign, the wets also will be busy. Several speakers are to be sent out from their headquarters to argue against prohibition and an extensive advertising campaign has been planned.

BANDITS ATTACKED FOURTH U. S. INFANTRY, ONE IS FATALLY HURT

Brownsville, Tex., Oct. 25.—The scene of the fighting and tactics employed by the Mexicans led army officers today to assert that the Mexicans engaged probably were members of the band which is said to have been led by Luis De La Rosa, founder of the so-called Texas revolution. Every river station was warned and the soldiers began a systematic hunt for outlaws in the belief that this time their escape into Mexico had been cut off. What the result of the search was during the night had not been reported at Fort Brown early today.

POLICE SPOIL ALLEGED PLOT TO BLOW UP MUNITION FACTORIES

New York, Oct. 25.—Two men suspected by the police and federal secret service men of having been engaged in a conspiracy to blow up war munition factories in this country and to destroy vessels carrying war supplies to Europe, were under arrest in Weehawken, N. J., today. Charges of having explosives in their possession were preferred against them by detectives who made preparation for their arraignment before a recorder in Weehawken today. Meanwhile, the authorities continued an investigation to discover whether in arresting the two men they had obtained the key to a long series of explosions on steamships, fires on piers and so-called accidents in various war munition plants. Of the two prisoners, one giving his name as Robert Fay, was suspected by the police of being the director of their activities. Fay said he was a lieutenant in the German army, had won the Iron Cross for bravery in the fighting in the Champagne district of France and that he came to America last April. The police assert that Fay admitted he came here to work out a plan to stop the shipment of war munitions to the allies. Documents found in his room in Weehawken were said to show that he was connected with the German foreign office. The other prisoner was Walter Scholz, who said he was Fay's brother-in-law, a mechanic and had been in this country for two years. A large quantity of explosives, including dynamite and various kinds of acid used in the making of explosives was found in the rooms the two men occupied in Weehawken or in a storage house in Hoboken. Among the devices seized by the police were peculiar bombs or mines believed to be designed to be fastened to the rudders of steamships. At a garage in Weehawken the police found a high powered automobile held in Fay's name and at a boathouse on the Hudson river a swift motorboat which he was said to own. In the boat-house they also found four wooden boxes, each containing 120 pounds of chlorate of potash, one of the ingredients used in the manufacture of so-called sugar bombs in which water percolating into the receptacle melts the sugar releasing springs and causing an explosion. The two men had been watched by detectives of the New York police department for two months. They were seen to pay frequent visits to an isolated spot in woods, near Weehawken. On Saturday last, detectives hidden in a tree top, watched the scene of their activities for eleven hours. They say they saw the two men come there late at night and test an explosion by blowing up a tree. Again yesterday the police watched in the woods and saw Fay and Scholz burning a powder and testing an explosive. When the test was completed the detectives arrested them. According to the police, Fay offered $1,000 to be set free.

RAIN IS OVER—BUT OH, THOSE HARD WINTERS

Paris, Oct. 25.—The world's rain cycle, beginning in 1902, which the French meteorological authority, Abbe Moreau, director of the Bourges observatory, predicted as the result of his study of the sun's face, is now, the Abbe says, ended. He forecasts a series, though not perhaps quite unbroken, of twenty-six hard winters beginning the present year. According to the Abbe, it is impossible to say where in Europe the winter cold will be excessive, but probabilities are France will have to face many rigorous winter seasons during this period.

RUGBY DOOMED IN AMERICA; CALIFORNIA COLLEGES TURNING TO AMERICAN GAME

Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 25.—(Special.)—As a leading branch of intercollegiate sport the game of Rugby appears to be doomed on the Pacific coast, its only stronghold in this country. The death knell of the English game on this side of the water was practically sounded during the past summer when the University of California broke off athletic relations with Stanford University, and the former turned back to the American form of play.

The action of these colleges came about presumably over the question of admitting freshmen to the athletic teams. Stanford held out for playing freshmen. All efforts of faculties, graduates and disinterested parties have so far failed to bring the colleges together so that a Rugby game could be played this fall.

Following the action of the University of California, many high schools in all parts of the state, and especially in the south, have turned back to the American game. Rugby is declared absolutely dead in southern California. There the University of Southern California discarded Rugby last year, and her example has been followed by nearly every high school and club team.

Stanford University stands alone as the survivor in the attempt to maintain Rugby. At the University the faculty is determined that American football shall never be resumed. Leading students assert that even if the student body demanded the American game the authorities would not permit it, so strong have they been prejudiced against that style of play.

The resumption of the American football game on the Pacific coast and the bringing of eastern competition to this territory will bind the east and west more closely. The Pacific coast colleges which are going back to the American game cannot, of course, expect to draw eastern competition the first year of play, but with two or three years' development, hope to be able to furnish competition worthy of the eastern teams.

Babes Coming Back

Chillicothe is going to be in the 1916 Ohio State league. That is the word that emanates from Point Street, O. Two hundred dyed in the wool fans are going to finance the club. This is straight dope. It is said Chillicothe will take Ironton's place and the league will go to the bat like this:

Portsmouth
Chillicothe
Maysville
Lexington Frankfort.

DICKERING FOR THE CHICAGO CUBS

It begins to look like John McGraw is going to secure the controlling interest in the Chicago Cubs. A deal is on for the sale of the Windy City team and it looks like McGraw is going to secure the club.

CAPT. SOLON DENIES HE'S PROFESSIONAL

Loren Solon, captain of the University of Minnesota football team, denies he played professional football at Havre, Mont., last summer. The eligibility committee at Minnesota is conducting an investigation.

OHIO NORTHERN IS OVERWHELMED

The shifty Ohio Wesleyan team Saturday, at Delaware, overwhelmed Ohio Northern, the final score being 61 to 0. Ohio Northern being completely outclassed. Rae Seiber, of this city, scored one touchdown for the Methodists and kicked three goals. He is easily one of the star gridlers of the state.

TIGERS WIN

New Boston Tigers, 36; Ironton Lombards, 0, was the score Sunday afternoon when the two teams left the field at Millbrook after a hotly contested game. A large crowd was on hand to see the battle.

The feature of the game was a drop kick from the 42 yard line-up by Bob Patton after the Tigers had been penalized 25 yards. James Lynn was the shining star of the game. Lynn ploughed hole after hole through the center of the line for 20 and 25 yard gains. His passing was perfect. Fullback Culter and Half Back Test made big gains through the line. The Ironton line was weak. "Rip" McKinney well known here, starred for Ironton.

The Tigers are trying to book a game with the famous Pan Handle team of Columbus. The Tigers line-up for Sunday: Starck, Emmert, r. e.; Matthews, r. t.; Sutton, r. g.; Jenkins, c.; Fredlocks, l. g.; Dixon, l. t.; Aldridge, Nutter, l. o.; Padan, a. b.; Culter, f. b.; Lynn, l. h. b.; Test, r. h. b.; Lynn, Nutter, Emmert, Starck and Culter scored touchdowns.

Muldoons Defeated

A hoodoo of some kind is following the Muldoon eleven. The team lost another game Sunday when they journeyed to Chillicothe, the score being 6 to 0. Two Chillicothe boys had to be used in the Muldoons' lineup. Quarterback Adams mixed up three signals and the heavy backfield of the Chillicothe team tore big holes in the local's line for big gains.

The Muldoon's lineup: Phillips, l. e.; Levi, l. t.; Warden, l. g.; McDaniel, c.; Likens, r. g.; Sennett, r. t.; Oursler, r. e.; Adams, q. b.; Patzek, f. b.; Cleveland, l. h. b.; Phillips, r. h. b.

Are Picking Manager.

"Jim" Gilmore is so persistent in his talk of a New York Federal League club in 1916 that rumor is beginning to name the probable leader of the local outfit team. Thus far the leading candidates seem to be "Bill" Clymer and "Jack" Dunn.

RALPH SHARMAN BOSS HITTER IN OHIO STATE

Ralph Sharmen, brilliant center-fielder of the Portsmouth team, who was sold to the New York Giants, has the honor of leading the Ohio State league in hitting. The official averages will show that Sharmen the past season hit at a .374 clip. In 103 games he made 147 hits and scored 75 runs.

Here is how the other members of the Portsmouth team batted last season: Jacobus, .328; Dilts, .308; Caton, .305; McHenry, .297; Spencer, .292; Dillhoefer, .280; Johnson, .276; Mills, .271; Bush, .215; Thimmes, .189; Test, .134; Ferguson, .09, and McCall, .07.

Portsmouth led in team batting, the club as a unit hitting at the remarkable clip of .311. Maysville was second with .252, so it is small wonder that Portsmouth copped the pennant.

Portsmouth was fifth in fielding, finishing with a fielding average of .937. Frankfort with .966, Perry of Ironton and Emmer of Maysville were the best third sackers; McClellan of Lexington led the shortstops, Sharmen the outfielders, Blackwell the catchers, Hudson of Charleston first sackers. Bush and Shafer were the best second basemen in the league.

The pitching records of the league will show that Test won 21 and lost 6, Jacobus 19 and 9, McCall 4 and 2, Ferguson 13 and 11 and Hancock 8 and 9.

Dillhoefer of the local team led in run scoring. In 103 games he scored 83 runs. Dilts was second with 81 and Sharmen third with 75.

Calbert of Ironton led base stealers with 36 thefts. Caton stole 32 and Sharmen 31.

De Berry of Maysville led the sluggers.

New Boston Arrows Beaten By Ironton

Lonie Chinn, left end for the New Boston Arrows, made a record run Sunday at Ironton when he picked up a fumble made by Ironton on Portsmouth's three yard line and raced down the field over Ironton's goal for a touchdown, not an Ironton man attempting to run the 97 yards with Chinn.

When the game was over Ironton Rags had 24 points to the Arrows' 6. The defeat can be attributed to the poor defensive work of the Arrows and the failure of the half-backs to cover up. Ironton ends on forward passes. Portsmouth worked several passes for good gains but the Ironton line held on line plunges. The game was 6 and 6 at the end of the first half, Ironton scoring a touchdown on a pass over the line at the end of the second quarter. In the second half the Ironton backfield suffered a complete change three fresh men going in. The teams will battle here in two weeks. The lineups:

A FEW PUNTS AND PASSES

The defeat of Michigan by the Michigan Aggies was one of the surprises perpetuated in the football world Saturday. The Wolverines were trounced 24 to 0.

State put up a bitter struggle against Wisconsin and for awhile it looked like the Badgers might be held to a scoreless tie, but they broke loose in the last two periods and O. S. U. was beaten 21 to 0.

Hiram beat Defiance Saturday 71 to 0. Orville Roberts, of this city, played a great game at fullback for Hiram.

Denison romped away from the University of Cincinnati Saturday, the final being a 35 to 0 affair. U. of C. was outclassed before the teams took the field.

It looks like Cornell is in for a great year on the gridiron. The wisecracks over East are already contending that Cornell will win the Eastern championship. The team got a great start when it walloped unbeatnble Harvard Saturday 10 to 0.

It looks like Coach Yost has a rather inferior team up in Ann Arbor this season. It always looks that way until Michigan begins to play her Eastern opponents.

For the first time in recent years Case beat Oberlin Saturday. Oberlin has a light team and one that can do nothing but execute the intricate forward pass.

Poor old Yale. The Sons of Eli are white meat for all of them this fall. W. & J. beat Yale 14 to 0 Saturday.

Ironton High added another victory to her list Saturday by defeating Gallipolis by a score of 9 to 0. The game was played in Ironton. Captain Davis, Ross, McKee, Hayes and Hanes played fine ball for Ironton. Ironton's line plunging resulted in big gains.

Mines, who is well remembered as center for the Huntington high school eleven last season, is playing center for Marshall College this year and is putting up his usual star game.

Workman, who played quarterback for Huntington high school several years and performed hero against P. H. S. eleven, is playing quarterback for Marshall College.

Pitcher Meyers, who twirled for Ironton in the Ohio State League last season, is captain and half-back on the strong Marshall College eleven of Huntington. Lawrence is the pitcher's right name.

Fast Jackson Eleven Is Beaten When Brandle Scores Touchdown

"Pete" Brandel, P. H. S. chubby center, played an all-star part in the Portsmouth-Jackson high school football game Saturday, when he recovered a Jackson fumble and ran for forty yards for the only touchdown of the game. Wilson kicked goal, making the Portsmouth score 11, Jackson 0.

One of the largest crowds that ever attended a high school game at Millbrook was present. P. H. S. was highly elated over the Huntington game and took the field with the idea that Jackson would prove easy prey, but the game was not five minutes old when the locals decided they were up against a real football eleven.

Jackson fumbled on the kick off, but one of their men recovered the ball. Jackson punted. Portsmouth tried a forward pass and failed. A pass was tried again and a Jackson man caught the pigskin instead of a local. Jackson made a fine pass, followed up with line plunges, which carried the ball into Portsmouth's territory. The locals got the ball on downs and were penalized for being off side. Quinn punted. Jackson made gains in line plunges and within striking distance of the P. H. S. goal tried to drop kick. Nutter blocked the ball and carried it for 50 yards. Portsmouth made a pass which a Jackson player received. Jackson punted. The punt was blocked and Wilson carried the ball to Jackson's 10 yard line.

Portsmouth had the ball on Jackson's five yard line and lost it on downs. Jackson worked a 26 yard pass and line plunges carried the ball to the middle of the field where the visitors lost the oval when they punted. Wilson fumbled and Jackson recovered. The visitors lost on downs. Portsmouth tried a run and Quinn punted. The Jackson full-back carried the ball for big gains through the line.

Jackson punted and Wilson fumbled. Wagner recovered the pigskin. Portsmouth failed to make ten yards and Quinn punted. Jackson tried to fake a play on the 25 yard line and fumbled. Wagner recovered the ball. Quinn made a 60 yard punt which went for naught as the locals were off side on the play. Quinn punted the ball over Jackson's goal, Jackson being given the ball on their 20 yard line.

The first half ended with the Jackson quarter back making a 45 yard run around right end. Wilson took the kick off at the opening of the second half. P. H. S. was penalized for off side play. Quinn punted the Jackson full-back, running ten yards after making the catch. Jackson was penalized for being off side. Jackson punted. Shoenaker received. Quinn punted. Jackson was penalized five yards for off side play. The visitors worked a forward pass.

Portsmouth got the ball in the middle of the field on downs. A pass was attempted and Jackson received it. Jackson punted and P. H. S. fumbled. Portsmouth received the ball on downs. Quinn was shifted to the back field and made a ten-yard run. Wilson made a 15 yard run.

The fourth quarter opened with the ball in Jackson's possession on their 60 yard line. Jackson after several line plunges tried a fake play. One of the players fumbled the ball and Brandel slipping through and picked up the oval, started for the Jackson goal. After a good 40 yard run he planted the ball squarely behind the posts. This was the only touchdown made in the game.

Captain Kendall, of the visitors, was loudly cheered when he went into the fray in the last quarter. Kendall was out of the game with injuries.

H. H. Keeles, coach of the Jackson team, brought the visitors to the city in automobiles.

Eight of the Jackson players were members of the Jackson eleven last season.

Coach Keeles said after the game he expected P. H. S. at least to make three touchdowns.

Fullback Evans and Quarterback Jones, of the visitors, played star football.

"Pete" Brandel, the local's center, was in every play. "Pete" is generally at the bottom of the heap, but always comes up smiling.

Captain Duwell and Quinn made splendid tackles and Quinn executed a number of long punts. Wilson made several big gains through the line and around ends.

Portsmouth's interference Saturday showed improvement over the brand exhibited in the Huntington game.

Gallipolis at Millbrook next Saturday.

Catch Is Called Off

The proposed boxing match between Frank O'Brien, of Columbus, and Chester Penix, of this city, for December 21th at Columbus, has been called off on account of the illness of O'Brien.

A match has been arranged at Lexington between Penix and Frank Smith, the champion lightweight of that city. Smith will enter for the ring, 140 pounds, and Penix at 132. The match will be in rounds.

THE "RISE" OF NATE

NOT ACCURATE, BUT EFFECTIVE.

General and Congressman Isaac R. Sherwood decries the movement for an immense army and navy as "Military Hysteria." It is comforting to hear such sane and sane talk coming from a grand old hero. None can doubt his patriotism and few will question his wisdom since he has served his country so bravely in battle and in legislature.

The movement, however, against which he sets himself so sturdily and opportunely has not, as yet, progressed to the state of hysteria, unless that quality be inherent in a false pretence. For, though undoubtedly making considerable headway, the scheme for national defence has not taken full hold of the people, become an obsession with them. It had no origin in the public mind, but was born of interests that have little concern in the general weal, and it has been fostered and promoted by them until it does appear to have considerable support. But the masses remain indifferent, no matter what the profession otherwise. If they would look at the matter thoroughly there would not be such indifference. Hugo standing armies, unreckoned battleships cost money. Money means taxes. Somebody will make fat fortunes out of the stores and the equipment that the money will be set to buying, and right there is the whole meat and compass of "the Security League and the National Defense." There is no thought, much less any purpose on the part of those furnishing the money to galvanize these projects into life, of them taking training as soldiers and qualifying themselves in the defense of an imperiled nation. The fighting is for the rabble to do, the promoters will feed, feast and grow fat on the honorable business that must be done in supplying the army and the nation.

VOTE AGAINST McDERMOTT LAW.

(Cincinnati Enquirer)

If the people of Ohio are in favor of actual regulation of the saloons, and by their vote in 1912 they so declared themselves, then they must be opposed to the so-called McDermott law, enacted by the last General Assembly. The wisdom of repealing the Greenlund law was questioned seriously by many Republican leaders and by the rank and file as well, but under the lash of party discipline the measure fathered by Senator McDermott was jammed through and one of the best liquor regulatory measures ever written into the statutes of Ohio was repealed.

The voters of Ohio will have opportunity on November 2 to determine whether or not this famous piece of legislation known as the McDermott law shall remain on the statute books or whether the sane, sensible and forceful legislation enacted to carry out the mandate of the amended constitution, the Greenlund law, shall continue to exert its unquestioned and undeniable regulatory power. The McDermott law was enacted as the fulfillment of a political pledge, made for the purpose of securing votes; the other was framed with painstaking care, with an eye single to the great end in view, real regulation.

There was disclosed at Columbus within the week the actual results of the working of the Greenlund law. It was shown that more than 3,000 dives and disreputable places had been closed through its operation, and that Sunday observance in Ohio, became an actuality without coercion or duress, simply through the inherent strength of the measure. The passage of the McDermott law resulted almost immediately in infractions of the Sunday closing law, many saloon keepers believing that the strict regulatory features of the Greenlund law had been repealed by the enactment of the McDermott measure. These violators of the law were brought up with a short jerk by the State Commission, operating under the provisions of the Greenlund law, once again demonstrating its absolute effectiveness and strength.

If the McDermott law is sustained by the voters of Ohio in the referendum on November 2 it will mean that the question of liquor regulation will be a biennial battle in every county of the state. Men aspiring to certain county offices will be tested, not by their measure of fitness for holding office, but rather by how they stand on the question of the issuance of saloon licenses within the district over which they hold dominion.

From every standpoint the old law is satisfactory. The new measure added nothing to its strength, but detracted greatly therefrom. The clean-up that has been effected in Ohio was worth while, and the conditions that have been created should be maintained. Next to absolute prohibition no law can be more effective in the regulation of the liquor traffic.

Up to the present we have not heard that the Republican county executive committee has given Roy McElhenny that full and free endorsement for congress as it agreed to do when it unanimously endorsed him for everything or anything. Better take the tip of an old scout Roy and connect with that endorsement before the election. After the battle is over you will most likely get a swift kick where it hurts most when you call around for your papers.

We suggest to the Star that the best way to find out just where Congressman Kearns stands or how he feels about being shunted off into a new district is to bring Kearns up here to make a speech and tell us all about it. NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, Oct. 25.—Mark that portend a long night of searching for the anxious trailer of Truth. The person who correctly solves the mystery of Question No. 2 is requested to bring the answer in person as Uncle Sam is sometimes prудish about what goes through the mails.

Chemical analysis has never solved Question No. 1.

Enstace Hale Ball, the movie playwright, used to be the editor of a weekly publication with the appropriate title of Broadway Buzz.

He found that the life of a publisher is about as pleasant as being a Belgian neutral. Several times he had to send out the S. O. S. call to keep the magazine alive.

One Saturday—the day the journal came palpitating from the press—he found that he needed more funds to circulate it. He sent a wire to a friend in Cincinnati and received a telegraph order for $100.

He rushed to the nearest telegraph office and learned he had to be identified. It was Saturday and nearly all of his friends were out of town for the week-end. Finally he discovered that the only person he knew who could identify him was a printer he owed $95.

And yet some scoff at the phrase "irony of fate."

A theatrical mystery is romping up and down the Rialto. It centers around two mythical persons known as "Paul Herve and Jean Briquet." Whenever Adolf Philipp produces a play these Frenchmen are heralded as the authors. They have gained quite a reputation in New York.

Now it is whispered that there are no such persons as "Herve and Briquet." Philipp is declared to be the author of such plays as "Little Boy Blue," "Alma," "Adele," "The Midnight Girl," and "The Girl Who Smiles." "Herve and Briquet" were supposed to be the collaborators.

It is a great laugh on the dramatic critics. The last play that was produced by these fictitious authors was roasted by one critic who said: "The play seems to have lost flavor in crossing the Atlantic." Philipp it seems wrote the piece in the neighborhood of Times Square.

Akbar, the handsomest lion in captivity, is a proud papa. His wife Helen has given birth to quadruplets at the Central Park Zoo. When Akbar looked over towards the cage at daylight the other morning he saw the increase in his family and gave a loud roar.

The cry aroused the Zoo Hippo and her young son Congo, who occupy a suite with a private bath opposite Helen's room. Congo seemed real peevish when he realized that four new babies were in the Zoo. Previously he had been the "Zoo Baby."

Since Helen signed a lease to occupy a flat in the Zoo Apartments, she has had thirty-one children and therefore has been the source of much profit to the Zoo, for a cub lion is worth from $300 to $350.

Autumn Days

Yellow, mellow, ripened days,
Sheltered in a golden coating;
O'er the dreary, listless haze,
White and dainty cloudlets floating;
Winking at the blushing trees,
And the sombre, furrowed fallow;
Smiling at the airy ease
Of the southward-flying swallows,
Sweet and smiling are thy ways,
Heauteous, golden Autumn days!

Shivering, quivering, tearful days,
Fretful and sadly weeping;
Dreading still, with anxious gaze,
Ley fellers round thee creeping;
O'er the cheerless, withered plain,
Woefully and hoarsely calling;
Pelted hail and drenching rain
On thy scanty vestments falling.
Sad and mournful are thy ways,
Grieving, wailing, Autumn days.

FLOATER FOUND BELOW THE CITY

The body of a male floater was found in the brush along the bank of the Ohio river, on the William Kennedy farm, seven miles below Portsmouth, Sunday afternoon, by William Corbett, a resident of that neighborhood.

Coroner J. W. Daehler, of this city, was notified and went immediately to make an investigation. Nothing about the man's clothing gave the slightest clue to his identity, while his body was too badly decomposed to tell whether he was a white man or colored.

The man was about six feet tall and wore a red sweater, a shirt and a heavy undershirt when drowned. From all appearances, he was a laborer, according to the coroner. The body has been in the water about three weeks.

Coroner Daehler ordered the body buried near the spot where it was discovered.

A trio of negroes giving the names of John Hurd, Charles Henderson and John Washington, were arrested in a rear room of an Eleventh street building late Saturday night and are charged with gambling. Evidence was found by the officers of a card game having been in progress, and a dollar bill lay on the table. The men were locked up and early Monday morning pleaded guilty to gambling. Hurd and Henderson arranged to pay fines of $10 and costs each, while Washington was put to work on the street. MRS. SCHALLENGER TOOK ARSENIC BY MISTAKE

Ed. Times:

I wish to rectify a report printed in Friday's Times about Mrs. Vashli Schallenger, of 337 Third street, of taking poison with intent to destroy her life, she having gone to a nearby drug store to purchase some bromo seizer for headache. She also purchased five cents worth of arsenic to destroy some rats in the pantry of her home. Coming home she went into the living room. Laying both packages on the library table she went to prepare supper for her husband. After supper she went into the room. Picking up the package she, suffering with a headache, thought to prepare a dose of the bromo seizer and through mistake took a teaspoonful of the arsenic in a glass of water, not intentionally, but through mistake. Please print and oblige. George Earl Schallenger.

The Netherlands. The kingdom of the Netherlands dates back to 1515, when the congress of Vienna granted its national independence under the rule of the House of Orange. At that time the provinces known as the Austrian Netherlands were united to Holland, but there was little sympathy of nationality, religion or racial inheritance between the two sections of the newly formed kingdom.

RUSSIAN ARMY RETAINS STRENGTH AND MORALE

London, Oct. 25.—The following statement from a high authority, representing the views of the Russian staff regarding the Russian military situation has been received here from the correspondent of the Times at Russian headquarters.

From May till October the Russian army has been subjected to interrupted blows along a front of 700 miles. The Austro-Germans have applied every possible means, not excepting such as are forbidden by international treaties, in order to increase the pressure against us. Masses of their troops were flung against this front and sent to destruction regardless of losses. Military history does not afford another example of such pressure.

During these months of continuous and prolonged action the high qualities and the mettle of our troops under the difficulties and arduous conditions of retreat have been demonstrated afresh. Notwithstanding his obstinacy in fighting and his persistency in carrying out maneuvers, the enemy is still confronted by an army which fully retains its strength and morale and its ability not only to offer staunch and successful resistance, but to assume the offensive and inflict blows which have been demonstrated by the of again taking the offense and looks with full confidence to the armies of the allies. They march boldly and cheerfully forward, conscious that in so doing it is defending the interests of our country and the interests of the allies. A stirring struggle with the forces of nature had schooled the Russians to hardships and ingrained them instinct to hasten to the aid of a brother in need. Hence an appeal from our allies will always find a warm response from the Russian army. The correspondent remarks that the concluding phrase, referring as it doubtless does, of Serbia, typifies the deep seated instinct of the Russian to respond to blood ties.
